Message from the Premier

The NSW Seniors Festival is a vibrant celebration of our incredible seniors and all the ways you enrich our communities.

Your contributions, wisdom and vitality are the heart of our state and we are proud to honour you. The NSW Government remains committed to supporting you in staying active, healthy and socially connected. Through initiatives like the NSW Seniors Festival, we celebrate you and reaffirm this commitment.

This year's theme, 'Time to shine', invites you to embrace new adventures, connect with others and forge new friendships. A highlight of the festival, the Premier's Gala Concerts, will once again light up the stage at the ICC Sydney Theatre. With some of Australia's finest performers delivering unforgettable entertainment, whether you join us online or in person, you're in for a spectacular show!

Right next door in Halls 4 and 3, the 2025 NSW Seniors Festival Expo awaits. Explore a dynamic mix of exhibitors, engaging workshops and lively stage performances. There truly is something for everyone. Designed with inclusivity at its core, ensuring all feel welcome and celebrated.

Let's make this your 'Time to shine'! Step into the festivities, embrace the joy and celebrate everything that makes you extraordinary.

Happy NSW Seniors Festival!

Message from the Minister for Seniors

Welcome to the 2025 NSW Seniors Festival, the largest celebration of seniors in the Southern Hemisphere! Now in its 67th year, this festival is a testament to the profound impact you, our seniors, have on our communities.

With hundreds of events across NSW, there's no better time to embrace the theme 'Time to shine.' Whether it's trying something new, reconnecting with others, or simply celebrating your journey, this festival is designed to inspire and energise seniors from all walks of life.

The festival's centrepiece events, the Premier's Gala Concerts and the NSW Seniors Festival Expo — are back at the International Convention Centre in Sydney, and they're bigger than ever! The concerts will dazzle with world-class performances, while the Expo next door offers a treasure trove of workshops, exclusive discounts and invaluable information. This year, we're thrilled to welcome even more exhibitors, reflecting the vibrant diversity of NSW's communities.

Each year, the NSW Seniors Festival grows, offering new and exciting ways for you to stay active, connected and celebrated. Be sure to explore the festival website to find out what's happening in your local area and how you can get involved.

On behalf of the NSW Government, thank you for your incredible contributions to our state. You truly are the heart of our communities. I hope this year's festival inspires you to shine brighter than ever!

Enjoy the 2025 NSW Seniors Festival!

Discover your upside of ageing

LiveUp is a free healthy ageing guide funded by the Australian Department of Health and Aged Care, designed to help you stay well, so you can continue doing the things you love as you get older.

There are lots of myths and stereotypes when it comes to getting older, but it's proven that how well we age is mostly determined by the lifestyle choices we make each day.

It's never too early or too late to start making changes. LiveUp is packed with free information and resources such as exercise sheets, local groups and activities, and simple solutions and products to help you take charge of how you're ageing.

The cast

Rob Mills

Rob Mills, a much-loved performer, has built an impressive career over the past 20 years, evolving from a footy-playing, pub-singing tradie from Melbourne's south-east suburbs into an accomplished actor, presenter, and author. With celebrated roles in iconic musicals such as Wicked, Hairspray, GHOST, Jesus Christ Superstar, Grease, and & Juliet (2023/24), Mills has solidified his place in the Australian theatre scene. His versatility extends to television, where he has appeared in Neighbours, Winners and Losers, and the Peter Allen telemovie, as well as participated in Dancing With The Stars, The Masked Singer, and Carols by Candlelight. He's also a familiar face on Network Ten's Melbourne Cup Carnival coverage and has presented travel stories on Nine's Postcards.

Known for his down-to-earth charm and banter, Mills first rose to "fame" on Australian Idol in 2003. He is also a passionate advocate for mental health, exploring modern manhood in his debut book, Putting On A Show - Manhood, Mates and Mental Health, published by Affirm Press. As the youngest of three brothers, Mills has always had a love for storytelling and camaraderie, alongside a deep affection for his family. His career continues to thrive across screen, stage, and in his written work, making him one of Australia's most beloved and multi-faceted public figures.

Todd McKenney

Todd McKenney is one of Australia's most accomplished and versatile performing artists, with a career spanning over 30 years on stage and screen. A critically acclaimed actor and musical theatre star, McKenney has captivated audiences in lead roles across numerous productions, cementing his place as a household name. His most iconic performance was as Peter Allen in The Boy from Oz, where he performed over 1,000 shows, making it one of Australia's longest running and most successful musicals. McKenney's extensive stage credits also include standout roles in Cats, 42nd Street, West Side Story, Priscilla Queen of the Desert and The Rocky Horror Show, among many others. Most recently, he starred in Cinderella The Musical and is currently playing the Wizard in Wicked.

In addition to his theatre career, McKenney has made a mark on Australian television, starring in the acclaimed ABC series Significant Others and appearing on shows like Winners and Losers and Ladies in Black. He has also hosted major network productions, including The Full Monty and The Real Dirty Dancing. McKenney's charm and expertise have led him to serve as a judge on Dancing With The Stars and as a guest judge on Australia's Got Talent. His career continues to thrive across multiple platforms, proving him to be one of the nation's most beloved and dynamic performers.

Prinnie Stevens

Prinnie Stevens is one of Australia's most dynamic and sought-after performers, known for her impressive talents as a singer, dancer, songwriter and presenter. She first captured attention at just 17, starring in the Australian premiere of Rent: The Musical. Her breakthrough came with her Helpmann Award-nominated role in Oh, What A Night!, which led to a move to New York, where she fronted an all-girl group for Sony Music. During her time in New York, Prinnie had the incredible opportunity to perform alongside legends like Patti LaBelle, Chaka Khan, Mary J. Blige, and John Legend. However, despite her international success, Australia remained her true home and she returned to pursue new challenges, including auditioning for The Voice, where she placed in the top 4 on Team Joel.

Since her time on The Voice, Prinnie has enjoyed a career full of highlights, including joining the cast of Celebrity Apprentice in 2013 and becoming the CoHost of The Voice Kids: Season 1. She made a triumphant return to musical theatre with her Westend Debut in Thriller: LIVE, where her portrayal of Michael Jackson earned rave reviews. After touring Australia, New Zealand, and Malaysia, she returned to the stage in Bonnie Lythgoe's production of Aladdin at the State Theatre. Known for her powerhouse performances, Prinnie remains one of Australia's most exciting triple-threat talents, with a bright future ahead of her in both music and theatre.

Tarryn Stokes

Powerhouse singer Tarryn Stokes captured the nation's heart as the winner of The Voice 2023. Raised in a musical family in Melbourne's North Eastern suburbs, Tarryn's passion for singing blossomed early, performing in talent shows and community events. Her incredible vocal talent led her to become a sought-after backing vocalist for Australian stars such as Guy Sebastian, Jessica Mauboy, and Delta Goodrem. After years of performing in cover bands and as a solo artist, Tarryn's breakthrough came when she auditioned for The Voice 2023, delivering a stunning rendition of Sara Bareilles' "She Used to be Mine" that left both judges and audiences captivated. Over the course of the competition, Tarryn showcased her vocal versatility, delivering powerful performances of songs from Abba to Demi Lovato, culminating in a breathtaking finale.

Behind the scenes, Tarryn's journey was not without personal challenges, balancing her growing music career with family life. A devoted mother to two young children, Tarryn found strength in her family's support, especially from her husband, a musician who understood the demands of her career. Her win on The Voice marked the beginning of an exciting new chapter, with a recording contract, a dedicated team and plans for new music on the horizon. Tarryn is preparing to release her version of "Silent Night" for the festive season and is already working on her 2025 music plans. With dreams of writing lullabies and continuing her music career while balancing motherhood, Tarryn is poised to inspire others to chase their dreams at any stage of life.

Marni Van Vliet

Marni is an interpreter who has also worked in theatre for over 10 years as a dancer, actor and acting teacher.

Marni has interpreted on the stage for various singers, actors and comedians such as Taylor Swift, Miriam Margolyes, Dave Hughes, as well as musicals including Wicked, Mamma Mia and West Side Story.

Marni's favourite time of the year is the Premier's Gala Concerts and she is excited to be back boogying with you for the fifth year running!

Katie Eales

Five years ago, the Premier's Gala Concert was the first time Katie interpreted on a big stage. This kicked off a love for all performance interpreting including musicals, theatre, festivals, comedy and any stage that would take her.

She is thrilled to see you all again and to be back on the stage where it all started.

Uncle Allen Madden
