

NSW Government Sector Integrity Framework

Government Sector Employment Act 2013

Statutory framework for the NSW government sector

Ethical Framework for the government sector

All NSW government sector employees are required to act ethically, lawfully and in the public interest, achieved by adhering to the government sector core values

Integrity

Trust

Service

Accountability

Pillars of integrity

Policies and procedures

Sets the parameters for what employees can and cannot do

Leadership

Sets the ethical tone from the top to support workforce integrity

People and culture

Ensures that employees have the skills, awareness and support to uphold integrity obligations

Preventing wrongdoing

Supports prevention, likelihood of detection and appropriate responses to integrity breaches

Oversight and accountability

Ensures effective governance and accountability for integrity practice, supporting trust through transparency

Tools and resources

Self-assessment tool

Action plan template