

Certificate entitlement

This application form can only be used if the marriage occurred in NSW. If you are either partner in the marriage, the certificate can be issued to you. If you are a child of the marriage, the certificate can be issued to you if both partners are deceased. If you are not a child of the marriage, but need to establish your legal right or entitlement, e.g. under a Will, your application will be considered.

If you DO meet the above criteria, you must provide:

- Three forms of your own ID (see below).

If you DO NOT meet the above criteria, you must provide:

- A Letter of Authority (available at: www.bdm.nsw.gov.au) giving permission from either partner in the marriage, or if deceased, their next-of-kin. Include their address, phone number and signature.
- Three forms of ID from the person giving permission (see below).
- Three forms of your own ID (see below).

Identification (ID)

Please provide at least three forms of ID, one of each from categories 1, 2 and 3. If you are unable to provide ID from categories 1 and 2, you must still provide at least three forms of ID. At least two of these must be from category 3.

All documents except foreign passports must be current.

Disclosure of information

When you complete this application form, understand that you have consented to the release of information provided, to those agencies who may be able to validate the information in support of your application. More information: www.bdm.nsw.gov.au

Your right to privacy

To protect your privacy, the Registry requires proof of your identity. In line with the NSW Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 and the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, the Registry collects information to determine your eligibility to obtain a certificate and to prevent fraud. Information may be used for statistical purposes and by law enforcement agencies, and other uses by law. Please read the policy on our website: Your Right to Privacy.

Commemorative certificates

Capture the joy and excitement of a new marriage or celebrate a marriage from many years ago with a special commemorative marriage certificate.

When you complete this form, choose a standard marriage certificate only, a commemorative only, or both together. Commemorative marriage certificates do not contain security features and organisations may not accept them as a proof of identity document. See separate Fees for Products and Services flyer.

Gold Rings

Commemorative certificates come in a popular framing size of 279mm x 355mm. They are beautifully presented, wrapped in tissue paper and packed in a protective cylinder.
