1 About this document

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

- respond as quickly and effectively as possible to resolve complaints and feedback
- ensure that the Registry meets the minimum Department of Justice standards for handling complaints
- use information from complaints and feedback to improve our services, and
- Meet the Australian and New Zealand Standard Guidelines for complaint management in organizations (AS/NZS 10002:2014), everybody has the right to complain.

1.2 Scope

This policy describes lodging and handling customer complaints and feedback at the NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages. It should be read in conjunction with the Departmental standards for handling complaints specified in the policy Managing complaints and other feedback.

1.3 Glossary of terms

| Client             | means a client of the Registry, as well as any member of the general public who is making a complaint, suggestion or feedback about the Registry operations. |
| Complainant        | means a person(s) making a complaint.  |
| Complaint          | means an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, policies, procedures, costs, or staff of the Registry.                  |
| Complaints Officer | means the Customer Resolution Officer within the Executive Unit.   |
| Staff              | means an employee of a business centre/branch, regardless of whether the staff member's employment status is permanent or temporary.                         |
| Registry           | means the NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages.   |

2 Contact the Registry

We want to hear how we can improve our service to you, and we welcome your feedback (good or bad) about our products and services. To offer complaints, suggestions or compliments:

- Online: Feedback
- Email: bdm-complaints@justice.nsw.gov.au
- Post: Complaints Coordinator
NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages
GPO Box 30
SYDNEY NSW 2001
- Phone: 13 77 88
- In person: Registry office locations or Service NSW

3 What is a complaint?

You can complain when you are dissatisfied with a standard of product or service; cost and delivery issues; accessibility; website; call centre; or any aspect of our service.

Listed below are groupings and descriptions of complaint types that may be received:

- standard of service (product, service, staff)
- costs
- other

4 Responding to Complaints

4.1 Assessment and Acknowledgment

All feedback will be assessed to determine whether they are valid complaints or tasks requiring actions.

All complaints will be assessed to determine urgency; if the complaint is urgent it will be processed as a matter of priority.

A formal acknowledgement will be sent to the complainant, within 3 business days, on the contact details provided and will include an estimated due date for a full response to the complainant. Our aim is to send a full response within 3 weeks from the date the Complaints Officer receives the complaint. If the complaint is complex and will take longer than 3 weeks to resolve, the Complaints Officer will send an interim response within 3 weeks and follow up with a full response when available.

4.2 Full Response - Resolution and Close of Complaint

The Complaints Officer is responsible for reviewing the complaint to ensure

- all aspects have been dealt with by the relevant Senior Manager/designated staff
- a remedy has been provided to the client and
- a written final letter has been sent to the client outlining the outcome of the complaint.

At this stage, the client will be offered the opportunity to have an internal review of the complaint if necessary.

5 What if I am not happy with the outcome?

You are entitled to be provided with an opportunity to be heard, to be treated fairly, and to be given reasons for the outcome.

Any person who has previously made a complaint may request an internal review of that complaint if they are not happy with the outcome. Ideally, the request should specify any concerns about the handling of the complaint.

It is preferable that the request for review is either emailed or mailed to:

Registrar
NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages
GPO Box 30
SYDNEY NSW 2001

Email: bdm-complaints@justice.nsw.gov.au

However, a request for an internal review can also be made to any staff member, in writing providing the reason for the review, which will be forwarded to the Complaints Officer.

Once a review is completed, if you are still not satisfied, you have the option to appeal at the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (NCAT).

6 Compliments, Feedback and Suggestions

Receiving and sharing positive feedback is extremely important for the Registry and staff. Any feedback received should be forwarded to the Complaints Officer for recording and acknowledgement.

Feedback means information from a customer about their experience of our service, suggestions or compliments. Please let us know ...

- did we exceed your expectations?
- do you have a suggestion or an innovative idea?
- did we get it wrong? (We will do our best to put things right.)
