

Wamba Wamba Community Action Plan - MRPD

The Wamba Wamba Nation straddles both sides of the Murray River and takes in the sizable townships of Deniliquin, Moulamein and Swan Hill. As well as part of the Murray, Wamba Wamba country also includes the major tributaries of the Edward River and Wakool River. On the Victorian side of the Murray, Wamba Wamba Nation are part of the North-West Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Group. On the NSW side of the River Murray Wamba Wamba people are represented by a number of organisations including the Wamba Wamba Local Aboriginal Land Council, Deniliquin Local Aboriginal Land Council and Yarkuwa Indigenous Knowledge Centre at Deniliquin. Yarkuwa is a traditional owner based organisation that carries out cultural programs including festivals, cultural heritage assessments and environmental management. Wamba Wamba Reserve is located in Murray Downs NSW, situated on the banks of the Murray River and the population fluctuates between 9 and 14 residents.
