Ted: [00:00:00] Hi everyone. I'm Ted and I'm researching.

I'm teaming up with my good friend, Rhi tonight against another team for an online quiz. Uh...Rhi? Rhi? Where are ya? Are you ready to play?

Rhi: Yeah, I'm here, but I'm not in the mood for it anymore. I don't want to play.

Ted: What happened? You were so excited yesterday. Are you okay?

Rhi: No, I'm not! I feel so confused. This morning, I wanted to prepare and do some online learning. And I...

Ted: Oh. That's great! I'm glad you'ready. I couldn't play until I finished cleaning my room! Booorrring!

Rhi: Mmm [00:01:00] hmm...anyway, so I got sidetracked and I played one of my games and I started chatting with some friends about it. I was using the lion character we created when we were gaming together the other day and I...

Ted: That was so much fun! And I remember, "But we need to be careful who we game and share information with all online".

Rhi: Yes, yes, yes. I know! But, when I was learning all about this stuff...

Ted: Tell me! What stuff? Will it help us win?

Rhi: Ted? Listen to me!

Ted: Oh...yeah...you're confused. Because?

Rhi: So, this Panda character said that my lion looked weird, that the mane was too short and I chose the wrong yellow color. They were so mean! So, I messaged back and I said to the Panda that theirs wasn't cute at all. And their drawing was all wrong! In fact, I said that Panda didn't look like a panda at all, [00:02:00] that it looked more like a raccoon.

Ted: Wow! Sounds like you were both kinda mean. Neither of you played nicely and really, it doesn't matter whether their character's a panda or a raccoon.

Rhi: Yeah, I know...I've logged off, but I still feel sooo bad and confused! The Panda called me a bully, but they started it first. I liked my lion. There was nothing wrong with it.

Ted: Rhi...even though we're best friends, you and I are very different people. But we're friends because we like each other and we play well together. Right?

Rhi: Well, yeah. So?

Ted: So, it's the same with people online. Everyone is different. Sometimes we feel good about something. Sometimes we feel not so good. But whatever you feel, you should try to be nice to the person at the other end. It's no good saying mean things and making them upset too. [00:03:00]

Rhi: But the Panda said mean things to me first! They hurt my feelings! So they deserved what I said to them.

Ted: Well, my big sister Jenny tells me, that if someone upsets me, I need to let them know what made me upset and why! And if I'm the one who upset someone else, she tells me I need to listen to how they feel and if need be, I should say "sorry". And...mean it!

Rhi: Arrgghh! This is just so hard! I don't know how to tell them how I felt!

Ted: Here. Check these out! Jenny and I played this game last week and it really helped me to understand how I'm feeling. Want to give it a try?

Rhi: Yup.

Ted: Take the top card and tell me things that make you feel that emotion. Don't let me see the card. I have to try and guess what emotion you're describing.

Rhi: Oh, this sounds like a fun game!

Ted: Ready?

Rhi: [00:04:00] Yup! Things that make me feel annoyed...Hmm...hmm...my big brother eating the last cupcake!

Ted: Oh, oh, oh...hungry!

Rhi: Nope! Hmm...what else could I say? Seeing a big puddle of rain water, but I'm not wearing my gumboots!

Ted: Excited!

Rhi: Nope! Hmmm. Being interrupted by Ted, all the time, when I try to tell a story.

Ted: Oh...annoyed?

Rhi: Yeah, you got it! Now it's your turn.

Ted: Okay. Happy. Hmm? What makes me feel happy? Oh, I know playing with my dog,

Tucker!

Rhi: That's too easy! Happy!

Ted: Oh yes! Tucker makes me soooo happy!

Rhi: Okay, my turn! Disgusting...things [00:05:00] l find disgusting. Mushrooms! Blurgh!

Ted: Delicious!

Rhi: Nooo!! Arrgh. Okay. Try this one. People kissing on TV!

Both: Disgusting! Hahaha!

Rhi: Oh, thanks Ted! That was really fun!

Ted: Yeah. And it shows that everyone can feel both good or bad about the same things! I've definitely felt all of those before.

Rhi: Yeah...me too! We also have different opinions about some of them. I can't believe you find mushrooms delicious! Blurgh! I guess people don't always feel the same about the same things, huh?

Ted: Exactly! And sometimes you don't know how your words or actions will make someone feel.

Rhi: Hmmm...Ted, do you think that the Panda knows they hurt my feelings? Maybe they don't even know that they were being mean!

Ted: That's [00:06:00] why it's really important to tell someone how you're feeling and always treat others the way you would want to be treated...both in real life and online.

Rhi: Yeah...I can see now that I was pretty mean too. What if I upset the Panda as well? And now they feel confused too?

Ted: Well, you should always try to be as nice as you can to others online. Just like in real life! If you say something that you think might have upset someone, it usually helps if you say, sorry.

Rhi: Yeah, I definitely didn't act online the way that I would have in real life. I forgot for a minute that my words might actually hurt someone! I think I know what I need to do. I'm going to say sorry to the Panda and clear this whole thing up!

Ted: I think that's a great solution.

Rhi: Thanks Ted. You've been super helpful! And after I've said sorry, we can get back to studying for our quiz tonight.

Ted: [00:07:00] Oh I think we've got a pretty good chance of winning...I've been studying for days! Did you know that it's impossible to lick your own elbow?

Rhi: That's pretty interesting!

Ted: And, and, and...horses and cows sleep standing up! *Snores

Rhi: Hahaha...looks like you have things covered.

Ted: There are more than 1000 kinds of bats in the world! And, and...caterpillars have 12 eyes! Oh yeah, we are sooo gonna win tonight! See ya Rhi!

Rhi: Okay, I'll see you later. Bye for now!
