Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2022

under the

Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998

[The following enacting formula will be included if this Regulation is made—]

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.

Minister for Families and Communities

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2012 (the 2012 Regulation), which will be repealed on 1 September 2022 by the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, section 10(2).

This Regulation includes the following changes compared to the 2012 Regulation—

- (a) a minor change to the circumstances in which it is presumed a person's authorisation as an authorised carer will be cancelled, to account for review and appeal rights,
- (b) the introduction of a requirement for an authorised carer to notify the relevant designated agency if a child placed with the carer is charged with, or convicted of, an offence for which a penalty of imprisonment for 12 months or more may be imposed.

Matters concerning the accreditation of designated agencies have been transferred to the Children's Guardian Regulation 2021.

This Regulation makes provision for the following—

- (a) the mandatory reporting of children and young people at significant risk of harm by certain service providers, professions and public sector agencies,
- (b) care plans and alternative care plans,
- (c) administrative matters for guardianship arrangements including the following—
 - (i) the form of consent to guardianship orders,
 - (ii) suitability statements for guardians,
 - (iii) conditions of financial assistance to guardians,
- (d) the authorisation of persons to provide residential out-of-home care, including emergency authorisations,
- (e) the administration of psychotropic drugs to children and young people in statutory out-of-home care,
- (f) other miscellaneous matters.

- (2) In this Regulation, a reference to—
 - (a) a Public Service agency or other organisation includes a reference to part of an agency or organisation, and
 - (b) an organisation that has applied for accreditation as a designated agency includes a designated agency that has applied for renewal of accreditation as a designated agency.

Part 2 General

4 Rescission and variation of care orders—the Act, s 264(1A)(d)

For the Act, section 90(2), the matters that may be taken into account by the Children’s Court in determining whether there has been significant change in a relevant circumstance of a child or young person since a care order was made or last varied include, but are not limited to, the following—

- (a) the parents of the child or young person have not met their responsibilities under a care plan or permanency plan involving restoration,
- (b) the Children’s Court, having conducted a progress review under the Act, section 82(3), is not satisfied proper arrangements have been made for the care and protection of the child or young person,
- (c) an application has been made for a guardianship order for the child or young person,
- (d) for a guardianship order—the guardian is unable or unwilling to meet the guardian’s responsibilities to the child or young person.

5 Prescribed bodies

- (1) For the Act, section 248(6), definition of prescribed body paragraph (g), the bodies listed in Schedule 5, section 1 are prescribed.

Note. A body prescribed for the Act, section 248(6) is, by virtue of the Act, section 245B(1), definition of prescribed body, also a prescribed body for the Act, Chapter 16A.

- (2) For the Act, section 245B(1), definition of prescribed body, paragraphs (b) and (c), the persons and bodies listed in Schedule 5, section 2 are prescribed.

Part 3 Records, reporting and information

Division 1 Records

6 Access to records relating to Aboriginal persons and Torres Strait Islanders—the Act, s 14(5)

- (1) A person who is entitled under the Act, section 14(2) to have access to records relating to the placement of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child or young person may request access to the records.
- (2) A request under this section—
 - (a) must be made to the Secretary, and
 - (b) may be oral or written, and
 - (c) must be accompanied by documentary proof of the applicant's identity.
- (3) The Secretary may give access in the following ways—
 - (a) by making the records available for inspection,
 - (b) by providing a copy of the records.
- (4) The Secretary must give access within 20 working days after receiving the request, except as provided by this section.
- (5) If it is not reasonably practicable to give access within 20 working days, the Secretary must, before 20 working days have passed—
 - (a) explain to the applicant the reasons why access to the records cannot be given within 20 working days, and
 - (b) extend the period in which the records are to be provided by up to 10 working days.
- (6) More than 1 extension may be made under subsection (5)(b) with the total of all extensions for a particular request being a maximum of 15 working days.
- (7) The period in which records are to be provided may also be extended more than once by agreement with the applicant.
- (8) In this section, working day means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

Note— Other legislation also governs access to records, including but not limited to the following—

 - (a) the Act, section 29,
 - (b) the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002,
 - (c) the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998.

Division 2 Reporting

7 Application of mandatory reporting requirements—the Act s 264(1A)(b)

The Act, section 27 applies to the following classes of persons—

- (a) a person who, while practising a profession or in other paid employment, delivers disability services, wholly or partly, to children,
- (b) a person who holds a management position in an organisation, the duties of which include direct responsibility for, or direct supervision of, the provision of disability services, wholly or partly, to children.

8 Extension of alternative reporting arrangements—the Act s 27A(10)

- (1) The operation of the Act, section 27A is extended to relevant service providers to whom the Act, section 27 applies but who are not employed in, or engaged by, the NSW Health Service and, for that purpose—
 - (a) a reference in the Act, section 27A to a staff member is taken to include a reference to relevant service provider, and
 - (b) the NSW Health Service is taken to be the relevant agency under the Act, section 27A in relation to a relevant service provider.
- (2) In this section—

relevant service provider means the following—

 - (a) an employee of, or person engaged by, an affiliated health organisation within the meaning of the Health Services Act 1997,
 - (b) an employee of, or person engaged by, a private health facility that provides services to the public on behalf of a statutory health organisation within the meaning of the Health Services Act 1997 or the Ministry of Health,
 - (c) an employee of, or person engaged by, an organisation that is or is eligible to become an ordinary member or associate member of the Aboriginal Health and Medical Research Council of NSW,
 - (d) a medical practitioner who is registered in the specialty of general practice or otherwise practices in general medical practice (a general practitioner),
 - (e) a nurse who is employed or engaged to work in the medical practice of a general practitioner, whether or not the nurse is employed by the medical practice.

9 Senior officers of Australian law enforcement agencies—the Act, s 29(6)

For the Act, section 29(6), definition of senior officer, paragraph (b), the following classes of persons employed in the specified law enforcement agencies are prescribed as senior officers of the agencies—

- (a) persons who are commissioned police officers of the Australian Federal Police,
- (b) persons holding the rank of superintendent or above in the Northern Territory Police Force,
- (c) persons holding appointment as commissioned police officers of the Queensland Police Service,
- (d) persons holding the rank of inspector or above in South Australia Police,
- (e) persons holding the rank of inspector or above in Tasmania Police,
- (f) persons holding or acting in the rank of inspector or above in Victoria Police,
- (g) persons holding appointment as commissioned police officers of the Western Australia Police Force.

Part 4 Care plans and alternative parenting plans

10 Care plans—the Act, s 78(6)

A care plan must include the information required by Schedule 3.

11 Alternative parenting plans—the Act, s 264(1A)(e)

An alternative parenting plan submitted to the Children's Court under the Act, sections 116 or 119 must comply with Schedule 4.

Part 5 Guardianship orders

12 Form of child's or young person's consent to guardianship order—the Act, s 79A(3)

- (1) A consent referred to in the Act, section 79A(3)(d) must—
 - (a) be in writing, and
 - (b) be signed by the child or young person concerned in the presence of a witness, and
 - (c) include a statement from the witness that, at least 14 days before the consent was signed, the witness, using language and in a way the child or young person could understand, explained the nature and effect of the guardianship order to the child or young person and informed the child or young person of the following—
 - (i) if the order is made, all aspects of parental responsibility for the child or young person will be allocated under the order to a specified person or persons,
 - (ii) an order may be rescinded or varied under the Act, section 90,
 - (iii) the child or young person is entitled to obtain independent legal advice before signing the consent.
- (2) The witness referred to in subsection (1)(b) must be—
 - (a) the principal officer of the designated agency responsible for supervising the placement of the child or young person, or
 - (b) an employee of the designated agency responsible for supervising the placement of the child or young person who has been directly involved in the supervision of the child or young person's placement, or
 - (c) an Australian legal practitioner.

13 Suitability statements relating to prospective guardians—the Act s 79B(1A)

- (1) An applicant for a guardianship order must present a suitability statement prepared by the assessment body to the Children's Court before the order is made.
- (2) A suitability statement must state the assessment body—
 - (a) is satisfied the prospective guardian and each adult residing at the prospective guardian's home have complied with the applicable requirements of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012, section 11A, and
 - (b) has obtained or conducted a uniform suitability assessment of the prospective guardian and each co-resident of the prospective guardian, and
 - (c) has provided information to the prospective guardian about the role of a guardian, and
 - (d) has considered, having regard to the functions imposed on a guardian by or under the Act, information held by the assessment body and all the circumstances of the case—
 - (i) the risk to the child or young person of assessing the prospective guardian as suitable to be a guardian, and
 - (ii) the risk the prospective guardian may be unable to properly perform the functions of a guardian.
- (3) The assessment body may require a prospective guardian to give the assessment body the information the assessment body reasonably requires to assess the prospective guardian's suitability to be a guardian of the child or young person.

- (4) The assessment body must conduct a review of the placement of a child or young person in out-of-home care if the child or young person is to be the subject of an application for a guardianship order.

14 Financial assistance to guardians—the Act, s 79C(5)

It is a condition of providing financial assistance under the Act, section 79C that the guardian of a child or young person who is provided assistance must, within 21 days of the child or young person leaving the guardian's care, advise the Secretary in writing the child or young person has left the guardian's care.

Part 6 Out-of-home care

Division 1 General

15 Arrangements and services that are not out-of-home care—the Act, s 135(3)

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 135(3)(c) the following are not out-of-home care—
 - (a) adoption services under the Adoption Act 2000,
 - (b) boarding services provided by an educational institution, or a body affiliated with an educational institution, to enable children and young people to attend the institution,
 - (c) a place used for the detention of children and young persons pending criminal proceedings, including police custody, or a detention centre within the meaning of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987,
 - (d) health services under the Health Services Act 1997,
 - (e) a private health facility,
 - (f) a holiday camp, outdoor recreation centre or similar facility where children and young people undertake or receive education, training or instruction in academic, religious, athletic or recreational pursuits, other than a camp, centre or facility the primary purpose of which is to give respite to the carers of children and young people or to address the challenging behaviour of children and young people,
 - (g) placement with a person authorised as an authorised carer under the Act, section 137(1)(c) in accordance with arrangements not involving supervision by a designated agency,
 - (h) placement arrangements provided to give respite to children and young persons who are carers and their siblings,
 - (i) accommodation provided by specialist homelessness services funded by the Department.
- (2) In this section—
educational institution means a school, training establishment or university.

16 Application for review of temporary care arrangement—the Act, s 152(6)

- (1) An application to the Children’s Court for review of a temporary care arrangement must be in writing.
- (2) A person who applies for a review of a temporary care arrangement must, as soon as practicable after the application is made, cause a copy of the application, endorsed with the time, date and place set down for the hearing of the application, to be served on—
 - (a) for an application made on behalf of the child or young person the subject of the arrangement—each person having parental responsibility for the child or young person who can reasonably be located, or
 - (b) for an application by a person having parental responsibility for the child or young person—the child, if above the age of 10 years, or young person.
- (3) A child or young person who applies for review of a temporary care arrangement is not required to serve a copy of the application on another person.

Division 2 Authorisations by designated agencies—the Act, s 137(2)

Subdivision 1 Authorisation

17 Application to be an authorised carer in a private capacity

- (1) A natural person may apply in writing to a designated agency to be an authorised carer.
- (2) On receipt of an application, the designated agency must provide the applicant with the following—
 - (a) information about the rights and responsibilities of authorised carers,
 - (b) information about the authorisation process including the criteria an applicant must satisfy,
 - (c) information about permanent placement options for a child or young person in out-of-home care.
- (3) An application must be accompanied by the information the designated agency reasonably requires to assess the applicant’s capability and suitability to be an authorised carer.
- (4) An application can be withdrawn before it is determined.

18 Determination of application

- (1) A designated agency determines an application by—
 - (a) approving the application and authorising the applicant as an authorised carer, or
 - (b) refusing the application.
- (2) A designated agency must not authorise an applicant as an authorised carer unless the agency is satisfied the applicant is capable and suitable to be an authorised carer.
- (3) Before authorising an applicant as an authorised carer the designated agency must—
 - (a) be satisfied the applicant and each adult residing on the same property as the applicant have complied with the requirements of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 for engaging in child-related work as an authorised carer, and
 - (b) obtain or conduct a uniform suitability assessment of the applicant and each co-resident of the applicant and determine the result of each element of the assessment is satisfactory, and
 - (c) be satisfied the applicant has completed the education or training required by the agency, and
 - (d) have received from the applicant a signed statement that the applicant has read, understood and will comply with the code of conduct for authorised carers, and
 - (e) take into account—
 - (i) the functions of an authorised carer and the risk the applicant would be unable to properly perform the functions, and
 - (ii) risks to a child or young person were the applicant to be authorised, including risks from the applicant’s home and from a person who resides on the same property as the applicant, and
 - (iii) relevant information available to the agency.

- (4) Authorisation of an applicant as an authorised carer under this section takes effect when the designated agency gives the applicant written notice of the authorisation.
- (5) The principal officer of a designated agency is to carry out the functions of the agency under this section, unless the Children's Guardian approves the carrying out of the functions by another person.
- (6) Failure to comply with subsection (5) does not affect the validity of the authorisation of an authorised carer under this section.

Subdivision 2 Provisional authorisation

19 Provisional authorisation

- (1) A designated agency may, in an emergency, authorise 1 of the following as an authorised carer for a child or young person on a provisional basis (a provisional authorisation)—
 - (a) a person who is a relative or kin of the child or young person,
 - (b) a person who is known to the child or young person.
- (2) A provisional authorisation takes effect on the day the first child or young person is placed with the carer.

20 Assessment of capability and suitability to be provisionally authorised

- (1) A designated agency must not provisionally authorise a person under section 19 unless the agency has determined the person is capable and suitable to be provisionally authorised.
- (2) Before determining a person is capable and suitable to be provisionally authorised as an authorised carer, the designated agency must—
 - (a) obtain from the person the information the agency reasonably requires to assess the person's capability and suitability, and
 - (b) carry out an inspection of the person's home and be satisfied it will provide a safe and secure environment for a child or young person in out-of-home care who may reside in the home, and
 - (c) consider the following matters in light of the functions imposed on an authorised carer by or under the Act, information held by the agency and all the circumstances of the case—
 - (i) the risk provisionally authorising the person as an authorised carer represents to a child or young person,
 - (ii) the risk the person may be unable to properly perform the functions of an authorised carer.
- (3) In assessing a person for provisional authorisation a designated agency may obtain or conduct a uniform suitability assessment for the person and each co-resident of the person.
- (4) The principal officer of a designated agency is to carry out the functions of the agency under this section, unless the Children's Guardian approves the carrying out of the functions by another person.
- (5) Failure to comply with subsection (4) does not affect the validity of the authorisation of an authorised carer under this section.

21 Administration of provisional authorisation

- (1) A designated agency must, when provisionally authorising a person as an authorised carer, make all reasonable efforts to inform the person, and each adult who resides on the same property as the person, of the relevant requirements of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.

Note— See the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012, sections 6(3)(c) and 10 and the regulations under that Act relating to those sections.

- (2) It is a condition of a provisional authorisation that the provisionally authorised carer gives the designated agency the further information the agency reasonably requires to assess the carer's suitability to continue to be provisionally authorised as an authorised carer.
- (3) A person who is provisionally authorised as an authorised carer and who has not, at the time the provisional authorisation takes effect, made an application under section 17 is taken to have made an application.
- (4) The Children's Guardian must monitor a designated agency's progress in determining an application made, or taken to have been made, under section 17, if the Children's Guardian becomes aware the application has not been determined after 3 months.
- (5) If directed by the Children's Guardian by written notice, a designated agency must cancel a provisional authorisation that has been in effect for 3 months or more.
- (6) The cancellation of the provisional authorisation of a person is taken to be a decision by the designated agency to refuse, under section 18, the person's application.
- (7) The provisional authorisation of a person ceases to have effect when an application by the person for authorisation as an authorised carer is determined under section 18.

Subdivision 3 Emergency and other authorisations

22 Emergency authorisation of residential care worker

- (1) A designated agency may, in an emergency, authorise a person as an authorised carer if the person is—
 - (a) an employee of the agency whose duties include providing, or supervising the provision of, care to children or young persons, or
 - (b) a contractor being a natural person engaged by the agency under a contract to provide services including providing, or supervising the provision of, care to children or young persons, or
 - (c) an employee of a contractor whose duties as an employee include providing care to children or young persons.
- (2) The authorisation of a person under subsection (1) may be for a maximum of 72 hours.
- (3) A designated agency must not authorise a person under subsection (1) unless —
 - (a) the agency is satisfied the person has complied with the requirements of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 for engaging in child-related work as an authorised carer, and
 - (b) the agency has obtained from the person the information the agency reasonably requires to assess the person's capability and suitability to be an authorised carer and the agency has determined to authorise the person taking into account—
 - (i) the relevant functions of an authorised carer and the risk the person would be unable to properly perform the functions, and
 - (ii) relevant information available to the agency.

- (4) For the purpose of assessing a person's suitability to be an authorised carer, the designated agency may make the inquiries about the person the agency considers appropriate, including—
 - (a) a nationwide criminal record check, and
 - (b) another relevant probity check relating to the previous employment or other activities of the person.
- (5) The principal officer of a designated agency is to carry out the functions of the agency under this section, unless the Children's Guardian approves the carrying out of the functions by another person.
- (6) Failure to comply with subsection (5) does not affect the validity of the authorisation of an authorised carer under this section.
- (7) A designated agency must not authorise a person under this section more than once.

23 Authorisation of residential care workers—the Act, s 137

- (1) A designated agency may authorise a natural person as an authorised carer if—
 - (a) the person is a residential care worker, and
 - (b) the agency has conducted each check required for the person by the Children's Guardian Regulation 2022, Part 2, Division 2, and
 - (c) the agency has determined the person is capable and suitable to be an authorised carer taking into account—
 - (i) the relevant functions of an authorised carer and a risk the person would be unable to properly perform the functions, and
 - (ii) relevant information available to the agency.
- (2) The functions of a designated agency under subsection (1)(b) and (c) are to be undertaken by the principal officer of the agency and may, with the approval of the Children's Guardian, be delegated to another person.
- (3) Failure to comply with subsection (2) does not affect the validity of an authorisation under this section.

24 Authorisation of residential care workers under sections 22 and 23

A person authorised as an authorised carer under section 22 or 23 is authorised to provide care only—

- (a) for a child or young person for whom care is being provided or supervised by the designated agency that authorised the person, and
- (b) in a residential setting.

25 Authorisation of caseworkers

- (1) A caseworker is taken to be authorised under section 22.
- (2) In this section—
caseworker has the same meaning as in the Children's Guardian Regulation 2022.

26 Authorisation of interstate residential care workers—the Act, s 137

- (1) For the purpose of a designated agency making arrangements for the provision residential care for a child or young person with an interstate agency, an interstate residential care worker is taken to be an authorised carer if the interstate agency satisfies the designated agency that all persons employed or engaged by the interstate agency to provide residential care to children and young people—
 - (a) have been assessed as capable and suitable to provide the care, and

- (b) hold a current working with children check clearance or its equivalent in the relevant State, and
 - (c) have undergone a nationwide criminal record check and the outcome of the check was satisfactory.
- (2) An interstate residential care worker taken to be authorised under this section is not taken to be authorised for the purpose of providing out-of-home care in New South Wales.
- (3) In this section—
interstate agency means—
- (a) the child welfare agency of another state, or
 - (b) a service provider funded by or contracted by the child welfare agency of another state to provide residential care to children and young people.
- interstate residential care worker means a person who is employed or engaged to provide residential care by an interstate agency.
- State has the same meaning as in the Act, Chapter 14A.

27 Other carers authorised by Department to enable special care

- (1) The Department, in its capacity as a designated agency, may authorise a person as an authorised carer to provide special out-of-home care if the person is—
- (a) an employee of a special care provider whose duties include providing, or supervising the provision of, care to children or young persons, or
 - (b) a contractor, being a natural person engaged by a special care provider under a contract to provide services including providing, or supervising the provision of, care to children or young persons, or
 - (c) an employee of a contractor whose duties as an employee include providing care to children or young persons.
- (2) The Department must not authorise a person under subsection (1) unless the relevant special care provider has—
- (a) informed the Department the special care provider is satisfied the person has complied with the requirements of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 for the child-related work as an authorised carer, and
 - (b) done anything else it is required to do under that Act in relation to the authorisation, whether before or after the commencement of this section.
- (3) The Department must not place a child or young person in the out-of-home care of a person authorised under subsection (1) unless the Department has—
- (a) determined the child or young person requires special out-of-home care that will be effectively provided by the placement, and
 - (b) consulted the Children’s Guardian about the placement.
- (4) In this section—
impairment includes, but is not limited to—
- (a) an intellectual impairment,
 - (b) a psychiatric impairment,
 - (c) a sensory impairment,
 - (d) a physical impairment.
- special care provider means an organisation the Department has determined is suitable to provide special out-of-home care for children or young persons.

special out-of-home care for a child or young person means out-of-home care provided for a child or young person who has one or more impairments that—

- (a) is permanent or likely to be permanent, and
- (b) results in a significantly reduced capacity in one or more major life activities, such as—
 - (i) communication,
 - (ii) learning,
 - (iii) mobility,
 - (iv) decision-making,
 - (v) self-care.

28 Authorised carer authorised by designated agency to give respite to usual authorised carer

- (1) A designated agency may authorise a person as an authorised carer who can provide respite for other authorised carers if the person is—
 - (a) an employee of a respite care provider whose duties include providing, or supervising the provision of, care to children or young persons, or
 - (b) a contractor, being a natural person engaged by a respite care provider under a contract to provide services including providing, or supervising the provision of, care to children or young persons, or
 - (c) an employee of a contractor whose duties as an employee include providing care to children or young persons.
- (2) A designated agency must not authorise a person under subsection (1) unless the relevant respite care provider has—
 - (a) informed the agency the respite care provider is satisfied the person has complied with the requirements of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 for child-related work as an authorised carer, and
 - (b) done anything else required under that Act in relation to the authorisation, whether before or after the commencement of this section.

Note. The Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012, section 10 requires an adult residing at the home of an authorised carer, other than a carer who is exempt from that Act, to hold a WWCCC.
- (3) The principal officer of a designated agency must carry out the functions of the agency under this section, unless the Children’s Guardian approves the carrying out of the functions by another person.
- (4) Failure to comply with subsection (3) does not affect the validity of an authorisation of an authorised carer under this section.
- (5) A designated agency must not place a child or young person in the out-of-home care of a person authorised under subsection (1) unless the agency has given the Children’s Guardian written notice of the name, and the street and postal address of the principal place of business, of the respite care provider.
- (6) A designated agency must notify the Children’s Guardian in writing if a child or young person is placed in the out-of-home care of a person authorised by the agency under subsection (1) for a period or periods amounting to more than 90 days in a 12 month period.
- (7) In this section—

respite care provider means an organisation providing temporary respite relief for authorised carers.

Subdivision 4 Conditions of authorisation

29 Conditions of authorisation

- (1) It is a condition of an authorisation that an authorised carer must not provide out-of-home care to a child or young person unless the carer has completed a course of training on the provision of care for a child or young person.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) out-of-home care provided to a child or young person who is a relative or kin of the carer or who is known to the carer, or
 - (b) an authorised residential care worker, or
 - (c) a carer authorised under section 22.

30 Designated agency may impose conditions

- (1) A designated agency may, by written notice, take action to—
 - (a) impose reasonable conditions on the authorisation of an authorised carer, including a condition that the authorised carer may provide out-of-home care only to specified children or young persons or to a specified class of children or young persons,
 - (b) vary or revoke a condition imposed under this subsection.
- (2) Action under subsection (1) takes effect when the authorised carer is notified of the action.
- (3) This section does not apply to the following—
 - (a) an authorised residential care worker, or
 - (b) an authorised carer authorised under section 22.

31 Personal responsibility of authorised carer

An authorised carer is personally responsible for carrying out the carer's functions and duties as an authorised carer.

32 Notice of change of address

- (1) An authorised carer must, before changing residential address, give written notice of the change to an officer or employee of the designated agency.
- (2) This section does not apply to the following—
 - (a) an authorised residential care worker, or
 - (b) an authorised carer authorised under section 22.

33 Information to be provided to designated agency

- (1) An authorised carer who is responsible for a child or young person in out-of-home care must give the designated agency the information concerning the care of the child or young person as the agency may from time to time reasonably require.
- (2) An authorised carer who is responsible for a child or young person in out-of-home care must immediately notify the designated agency if 1 or more of the following occurs—
 - (a) the child or young person leaves the care of the authorised carer,
 - (b) the child or young person is to be, or has been—
 - (i) expelled or suspended from school, or

- (ii) absent without permission from the care of the authorised carer for a period of 24 hours or more,
 - (iii) absent without permission, whether or not while in the care of the authorised carer, from New South Wales for any period,
 - (c) the child or young person is charged with a criminal offence for which a penalty of imprisonment for 12 months or more may be imposed,
 - (d) the child or young person suffers a serious accident, injury or illness,
 - (e) the child or young person dies,
 - (f) the authorised carer—
 - (i) becomes a parent to another child or young person, or
 - (ii) is charged with or convicted of an offence for which a penalty of imprisonment for 12 months or more may be imposed, or
 - (iii) becomes aware a member of the carer’s household has been charged with or convicted of an offence for which a penalty of imprisonment for 12 months or more may be imposed,
 - (g) a child, young person or other person joins the authorised carer’s household.
- (3) Subsection (2)(f)(i) and (iii) and (g) do not apply to the following—
- (a) an authorised residential care worker, or
 - (b) an authorised carer authorised under section 22.

34 Medical examination

- (1) A designated agency may, as part of determining whether the authorised carer’s household is a healthy environment for the care of children or young persons, by written notice require the authorised carer or another person who resides at the authorised carer’s home to undergo an examination by a medical practitioner.
- (2) A designated agency may only require a person to undergo an examination under subsection (1)—
- (a) on the written advice of a medical practitioner, and
 - (b) if satisfied the examination is reasonably necessary.
- (3) An authorised carer who receives a notice under subsection (1) must
- (a) undergo the requested examination, or ensure the person to whom the notice relates undergoes the examination, and
 - (b) ensure a report from the examination is, within a reasonable time after the examination is conducted, given to the designated agency and to another supervising person who requests a copy of the report.
- (4) In this section—
- supervising person means—
- (a) the Secretary or the Secretary’s delegate, or
 - (b) an officer or employee of the designated agency with supervisory responsibility for a child or young person in the care of an authorised carer.

Subdivision 5 Cancellation, suspension and surrender of authorisation

35 Cancellation or suspension of authorisation by designated agency

- (1) A designated agency may, by written notice, cancel or suspend the authorisation of an authorised carer if the agency is of the opinion the authorised carer—
- (a) is no longer a suitable person to be an authorised carer, or

- (b) has failed to comply with a condition of the authorisation, or
- (c) has failed to comply with a condition or requirement imposed on the authorised carer by the Act or this Regulation, or
- (d) has failed to comply with a written direction to the authorised carer given by the designated agency or the Children's Guardian under the Act, section 157(3), or
- (e) has failed to uphold the Charter of Rights prepared by the Minister under the Act, section 162.

Note— Under the Act, section 245(1)(a) and (a1) a decision to suspend or cancel the authorisation of an authorised carer is administratively reviewable by the Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

36 Automatic cancellation—making of guardianship order

- (1) On the making of a guardianship order making an authorised carer the guardian of a child or young person named in the order, the authorisation of the authorised carer is automatically cancelled so far as it relates to the child or young person.

Note— This subsection does not affect an authorisation as an authorised carer so far as it relates specifically or generally to children or young persons other than the child or young person who is the subject of the guardianship order.

- (2) The reference to the making of a guardianship order in subsection (1) extends to an order taken to be a guardianship order under the Act, Schedule 3, section 35 on the commencement of the Act, section 79A.

37 Automatic cancellation—working with children requirements no longer met

- (1) The authorisation of a person as an authorised carer is automatically cancelled if the person—
 - (a) no longer has—
 - (i) a WWCCC, or
 - (ii) a WWCCC application, or
 - (b) is subject to an interim bar.
- (2) The cancellation of the authorisation takes effect—
 - (a) when the person is notified—
 - (i) the person's WWCCC has been cancelled, or
 - (ii) the person's current WWCCC application has been terminated or refused, or
 - (iii) the person is subject to an interim bar, or
 - (b) if the WWCCC is cancelled under the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012, section 24—when the person notifies the Children's Guardian the person wishes to surrender the person's WWCCC, or
 - (c) if the WWCCC ceases to have effect because 5 years have passed since it was granted and the holder of the WWCCC has not applied for a new WWCCC—on the day the WWCCC ceases to have effect.
- (3) The designated agency supervising the out-of-home care of a child or young person in the care of a person whose authorisation is cancelled under this section must, within 48 hours of becoming aware of the cancellation, ensure the child or young person no longer resides with the person, unless the person's authorisation is revived under this section before the end of the 48 hours.
- (4) The designated agency that authorised a person may revive the person's authorisation within 2 years after it is cancelled under this section, if the person—

- (a) has—
 - (i) a WWCCC, or
 - (ii) a WWCCC application, and
- (b) is not subject to an interim bar.

38 Automatic cancellation—cessation of employment or contract

The authorisation of a person authorised as an authorised carer in the person's employment or under a contractual arrangement is automatically cancelled if the person ceases employment or is no longer providing care under the contractual arrangement.

39 Presumption that authorisation will be cancelled

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 137(2)(e)(ii) the occurrence of the following events raises a presumption the authorisation of a person as an authorised carer is to be cancelled—
 - (a) if the authorisation relates to the out-of-home care of a particular child or young person—the person has not provided out-of-home care to the child or young person for 3 months or more,
 - (b) in all other cases—the person has not provided out-of-home care to a child or young person under the authorisation for 2 years or more.
- (2) Cancellation of an authorisation under subsection (1) is not to occur if—
 - (a) an investigation into whether the person's authorisation should be cancelled is underway, or
 - (b) the person has applied for an internal review of a decision to cancel the person's authorisation and the review is underway, or
 - (c) the person has applied for the review of a reviewable decision and the Civil and Administrative Tribunal has not given a decision, or

Note— see the Act section 245 for decisions administratively reviewable by NCAT.

 - (d) the agency is satisfied the authorisation should not be cancelled in the particular case.

40 Automatic suspension of authorisation

- (1) The authorisation of a person as an authorised carer is automatically suspended if an unsuitable co-resident resides on the same property as the authorised carer.
- (2) The suspension of the authorisation takes effect when the authorised carer is notified an unsuitable co-resident resides on the same property as the authorised carer.
- (3) A suspension under this section ceases to have effect if no unsuitable co-resident resides on the same property as the authorised carer.
- (4) The designated agency supervising the out-of-home care of a child or young person in the care of an authorised carer must, within 48 hours of becoming aware of an unsuitable co-resident residing on the same property as the authorised carer, ensure the child or young person no longer resides with the authorised carer, unless the suspension of the authorised carer ceases to have effect under this section before the end of the 48 hours.
- (5) In this section—

unsuitable co-resident means a co-resident who resides on the same property as an authorised carer and who is required to have a WWCCC or a WWCCC application to reside on the property and who—

- (a) does not have 1 of the following—
 - (i) a WWCCC,
 - (ii) a WWCCC application,
 - (iii) a continuing residence approval, or
- (b) is subject to an interim bar.

41 Surrender of authorisation

A person authorised as an authorised carer under this Division may surrender the authorisation by written notice to the designated agency that authorised the person.

Subdivision 6 Miscellaneous

42 Assessment of persons residing on same property as carer

- (1) It is a condition of an authorised carer's authorisation that all co-residents of the authorised carer are subject to a uniform suitability assessment.
- (2) A designated agency must, as soon as practicable after becoming aware a person is a co-resident of an authorised carer who has been authorised under section 18 or 19, obtain or conduct a uniform suitability assessment of the person.
Note—A designated agency also has obligations under the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 concerning persons residing on the same property as authorised carers.
- (3) This section does not apply to a co-resident who is a young person in out-of-home care.

43 Authorisation by designated agency to be in writing

A designated agency that authorises a person as an authorised carer under this Division must give the person a written copy of the authorisation setting out conditions imposed by the agency.

Division 3 Authorisation other than by designated agency

44 Other authorisation

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 137(1)(c) the following persons are authorised as authorised carers—
 - (a) a person who provides residential care and control of a child or young person whose placement arrangements are not subject to supervision by a designated agency, and who provides care and control under—
 - (i) a care plan developed by the Secretary, or
 - (ii) an alternative parenting plan approved or registered by the Children's Court under the Act, Chapter 7, Part 1,
 - (b) a person providing residential care and control of a child or young person whose placement arrangements are not subject to supervision by a designated agency under an order of the Supreme Court or the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia.
- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) is authorised as an authorised carer only in relation to the child or young person concerned, and the person ceases to be an authorised carer when the person ceases to have care responsibility for the child or young person.

45 Transferred authorisation

The authorisation of a person as an authorised carer of a child or young person in out-of-home care is taken to be an authorisation by the Department if, under the Act, section 141(1), the Department supervises the placement of the child or young person.

Division 4 Behaviour management—the Act, s 137(2)(g)

46 Children and young persons supervised by a designated agency

- (1) An authorised carer, in correcting and managing the behaviour of a child or young person in out-of-home care must use only behaviour management practices approved by the designated agency responsible for supervising the placement of the child or young person.
- (2) Behaviour management practices approved by a designated agency must not include the following—
 - (a) physical coercion or physical punishment,
 - (b) punishment taking the form of immobilisation, force-feeding or depriving a child or young person of food,
 - (c) punishment intended to humiliate or frighten a child or young person.
- (3) An authorised carer who finds the approved behaviour management practices are not sufficiently effective to correct or manage the behaviour of a child or young person must notify the designated agency of that fact as soon as practicable.
- (4) On receiving a notification under subsection (3), the designated agency, after assessing the situation, must determine if the problem should be addressed by one or more of the following—
 - (a) providing appropriate advice, support and training to the authorised carer and appropriate support to the child or young person,
 - (b) adjusting the approved behaviour management practices for the child or young person,
 - (c) preparing a behaviour management plan for the child or young person.
- (5) If the designated agency concludes action under subsection (4) has been, or will be, ineffective to correct or manage the behaviour of the child or young person the agency may change the placement arrangements.

47 Children and young persons not supervised by a designated agency

- (1) This section applies only to a person authorised as an authorised carer under section 44(1)(a).
- (2) An authorised carer, in correcting and managing the behaviour of a child or young person in out-of-home care, may use only behaviour management practices approved by the Secretary.
- (3) Behaviour management practices approved by the Secretary must not include the following—
 - (a) physical coercion or physical punishment,
 - (b) punishment taking the form of immobilisation, force-feeding or depriving a child or young person of food,
 - (c) punishment intended to humiliate or frighten a child or young person.

Part 7 Medical examination and treatment

48 Notice of medical examination

For the purposes of the Act, section 173(1) the prescribed form of notice is the form in Schedule 1.

Note— The Interpretation Act 1987, section 80(1) provides where a form is prescribed by, or approved under, an Act, strict compliance with the form is not necessary but substantial compliance is sufficient.

49 Administration of psychotropic drugs to child in statutory out-of-home care—the Act, s 264(1A)(g)

- (1) An authorised carer for a child in statutory out-of-home care must immediately notify the designated agency with supervisory responsibility for the placement of the child if a medical practitioner prescribes administration of a psychotropic drug to the child.
- (2) On receiving notification under subsection (1), the principal officer of the designated agency must prepare, or cause to be prepared and approve, a behaviour support plan for the child taking into account administration of the drug.
- (3) This section applies in relation to the administration of a psychotropic drug that is also a drug of addiction within the meaning of the Poisons and Therapeutic Goods Act 1966 even if the drug is administered in accordance with an exemption referred to in the Act, section 175(4A).

Note— For example, methylphenidate, also known as Ritalin, is a psychotropic drug and is also a drug of addiction referred to in section 175(5), definition of special medical treatment, paragraph (c1). Methylphenidate is also the subject of an exemption under the Act, section 175(4A).

- (4) In this section—
psychotropic drug means prescribed medication that can affect, by acting on the central nervous system, cognition, perception, thinking, mood, behaviour or level of arousal.

Part 8 Miscellaneous

50 Savings and transitional provisions

- (1) Any act, matter or thing that, immediately before the repeal of the previous Regulation, had effect under the previous Regulation continues to have effect under this Regulation.
- (2) The Act, section 149A, as in force immediately before its repeal by the amending Act, and the previous Regulation, clauses 10 and 11, as in force before their repeal by the amending Regulation, continue to apply to and for an order referred to in the Act, Schedule 3, clause 34 despite the repeal of that section and those clauses.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect on and from 29 October 2014.
- (4) In this section—

amending Act means the Child Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2014.

amending regulation means the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Further Amendment Regulation 2014.

previous Regulation means the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2012

Note— The Interpretation Act 1987, section 30 provides that the repeal of a regulation does not affect the operation of any savings or transitional provision contained in the regulation. For repealed savings and transitional provisions that may have ongoing operation, see the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2012, clause 88.

Schedule 2 Uniform suitability assessment requirements

sections 13, 18, 20 and 42

1 Definitions

In this schedule—

community services check means a check, as determined by the Secretary, of the information held by the Department.

2 Assessment body must obtain information

An assessment body must obtain the following about an assessable person—

- (a) proof, using documents of a type approved by the Children’s Guardian, of the person’s identity,
- (b) if the assessable person is being assessed by the assessment body as to the person’s suitability to be a guardian or an authorised carer—
 - (i) references, from at least 2 people, addressing the assessable person’s suitability to care for a child, and
 - (ii) a statement, in the form approved by the Secretary, made by the assessable person about the person’s physical and mental health, and
 - (iii) a medical report, in the form approved by the Secretary, about the person’s physical and mental health.

3 Assessment body must conduct checks

- (1) An assessment body must conduct the following checks of an assessable person—
 - (a) a nationwide criminal record check,
 - (b) a community services check,
 - (c) if the assessment body reasonably believes a designated agency, other than the Department, has material knowledge about the assessable person—a check with the agency as to a person’s suitability to care for a child or young person or to reside on the same property as an authorised carer,
 - (d) if the assessment body reasonably believes an accredited adoption service provider has material knowledge about the assessable person—a check with the provider as to the person’s suitability to adopt a child or young person,
 - (e) if the assessable person is being assessed by the assessment body as to his or her suitability to be a guardian or an authorised carer—an inspection of the assessable person’s home to determine whether it will provide a safe and secure environment for a child or young person in out-of-home care or subject to a guardianship order who may reside in the home.
- (2) A designated agency has material knowledge about an assessable person for the purposes of this section if the designated agency has—
 - (a) authorised the person as an authorised carer, or
 - (b) received an application from the person to be authorised as an authorised carer, or
 - (c) assessed the person’s suitability for a guardianship order, or
 - (d) known the person to reside on the same property as a person who—
 - (i) is an authorised carer, or
 - (ii) submitted an application to be authorised as an authorised carer, or
 - (iii) was assessed for a guardianship order.

- (3) An accredited adoption service provider has material knowledge about an assessable person for the purposes of this section if the accredited adoption service provider—
- (a) has received, from the assessable person—
 - (i) an expression of interest in adopting a child or young person, or
 - (ii) an application to adopt a child or young person, or
 - (b) has known the assessable person to reside on the same property as a person who has submitted—
 - (i) an expression of interest in adopting a child or young person, or
 - (ii) an application to adopt a child or young person.

4 Circumstances when assessment body not required to obtain information or conduct checks

- (1) An assessment body is not required to comply with sections 2 and 3 for an assessable person if the information was previously obtained, or the check was previously conducted, by the assessment body—
- (a) in assessing whether the person is suitable to be authorised as an authorised carer, or
 - (b) in preparing a suitability statement under this Regulation, section 13 for the person, or
 - (c) in assessing whether the person is suitable to adopt a child under the Adoption Act 2000.
- (2) A statement under section 2(b)(ii) is not required when assessing the suitability of a person to be the guardian of a child or young person if the person is the authorised carer of the child or young person.

5 Exemptions for assessable residents

- (1) An assessment body is not required to obtain information about or conduct a check of an assessable resident if the information or check has already been obtained or conducted by the assessment body in determining the assessable resident was suitable to reside on the same property as an authorised carer, a guardian or an adoptive parent.
- (2) A nationwide criminal record check of an assessable resident who resides on the same property as a person who has applied for a guardianship order or to be authorised as an authorised carer—
- (a) must not be obtained or conducted if the assessable person is less than 14 years of age, and
 - (b) is not required if the assessable person is less than 16 years of age.
- (3) A community services check of an assessable resident who resides on the same property as a person who has applied for a guardianship order or to be authorised as an authorised carer must not be obtained or conducted if the assessable person is less than 16 years of age.
- (4) A community services check or nationwide criminal record check is not required for the following persons—
- (a) a person who has become an assessable resident because the person turned 18 years of age while residing on the same property as an authorised carer and who has resided on the same property as the authorised carer for at least 2 years immediately before the person turned 18 years of age,
 - (b) a person who has become an assessable resident because the person turned 16 years of age while residing on the same property as an authorised carer and who was residing on the same property as the authorised carer when the authorised carer was authorised.

(5) In this section—

assessable resident means a person who—

- (a) is an assessable person because the person is a co-resident, and
- (b) is not an authorised carer, a carer applicant, a guardian or a prospective guardian.

6 Special exemption if adoption suitability check conducted

An assessment body is not required to obtain information about, or conduct a check of, an assessable person if the information or check has been obtained or conducted by an adoption service provider and the information or results of the check have been provided to the assessment body.

7 Assessment body may obtain other information

The assessment body may obtain additional information about, or conduct additional checks of, an assessable person as the assessment body considers appropriate including a check about the person's employment or other activities.

8 Assessment body can cease assessment of unsuitable person

If the assessment body forms an opinion an assessable person is an unsuitable person, it is not required to continue to obtain information about or conduct a further check of the assessable person.

Schedule 3 Care plans

section 10

1 Mandatory content

- (1) In addition to the matters specified in the Act, section 78(2) a care plan must include the following—
- (a) the date the plan is made,
 - (b) the method, for example by interview in person or over the telephone, used to obtain the views of—
 - (i) the parents of the child or young person, and
 - (ii) the child or young person,
 - (c) whether the people who gave a view under (b) were spoken to separately or together,
 - (d) for the agency or body with overall responsibility for coordinating the plan and the delivery of services to the child or young person and his or her family—
 - (i) the name of the agency or body and its relationship to the child or young person,
 - (ii) the responsibilities of the agency or body under the plan,
 - (iii) the initial date on which the agency or body must assess the progress of the plan and the frequency of subsequent assessments,
 - (e) for each other person, agency or body participating in the plan—
 - (i) the name of the person, agency or body and their relationship to the child or young person,
 - (ii) the responsibilities of the person, agency or body under the plan and the approximate period of time during which the responsibilities are to be carried out,
 - (f) the resources required to provide the services that need to be provided to the child or young person and the availability of the resources,
 - (g) the plans or arrangements to meet the education and training needs of the child or young person,
 - (h) whether the contact arrangements for the child or young person may require an application for a contact order under the Act, section 86,
 - (i) the indicators to be used to assess the success of the plan,
 - (j) if restoration of the child or young person is to be considered at a later time the goals to be achieved by the parents, and the approximate period of time in which the goals are to be achieved, to facilitate restoration, having regard to the age and developmental needs of the child or young person.

Note— The matters for which a care plan must make provision under section 78(2) of the Act are—
