

NSW Electric Vehicle (EV) Strategy Dashboard

As at 30 September 2022

Since the 1 September 2021 commencement of EV stamp duty and rebate incentives

New EV registrations

10,784

consisting of battery EVs and hydrogen fuel cell passenger EVs

EV stamp duty exemption refunds

7,710

for eligible EVs purchases with a dutiable value up to $78,000

EV rebates paid

3,333

out of the 25,000 rebates for new eligible EVs purchases with a dutiable value up to $68,750

EV registration market shares to the end of 2021

Battery EV portion of new light vehicle registrations

1.5% p.a.

Battery EV portion of light vehicle stock

0.2%

At the earlier of when the annual new battery EV sales percentage reaches 30% and 1 July 2027, all battery EVs will be stamp duty exempt and the road user charge begins.

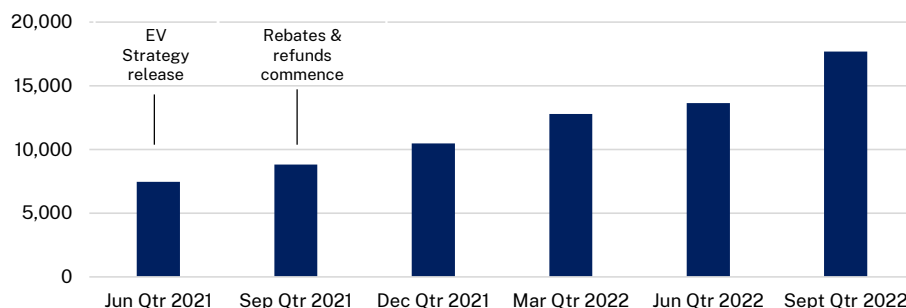

Battery EV model availability

27

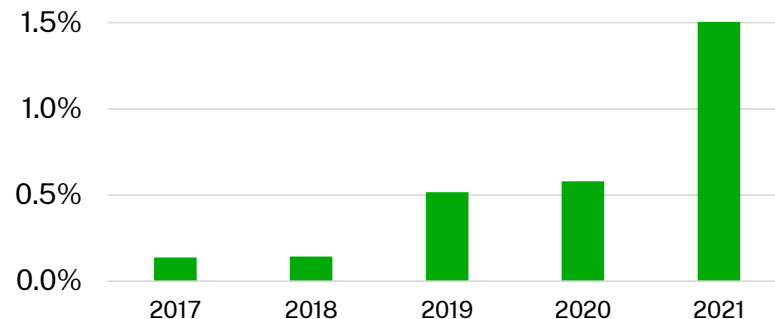

models with 51 variants

↑ 7 new models and 14 variants in 2022

Battery EV total registrations - Quarterly

Battery EV portion of new light vehicles

Emissions reductions of new passenger EV registrations

↓ 3,900

estimated annual tonnes of CO₂ equivalent abated

EV fast charging grants

518

bays

86

fast charging stations

funded from the first funding round

Government passenger EV procurement in FY2022-23

1.2%

Passenger EV procurement annual targets are 50% by 2026 and 100% by 2030

Change in light vehicle stock from 2020 to 2021

Battery EVs	↑	92%	from 6k to 12k
Hybrids	↑	38%	from 63k to 87k
Diesel	↑	5%	from 1.30 to 1.37m
Unleaded Petrol	—	0%	from 4.18 to 4.19m