22 February 2023

Question and Answer (Q&A)

The table below contains questions asked during the sector briefing on 14 February 2023 and those received via email to date.

No	Question	Answer
1	What are the target groups for this grant?	There are 10 target groups specified and defined in the published Grant Program Guidelines (page 4). Grant activities/projects must serve people from multicultural communities (including children, young people, and older people) from one or more of the 10 target groups.
2	What do you mean by DFSV prevention activities/projects?	The NSW State Plans definitions are as follows: Primary prevention, which aims to prevent violence before it occurs. It comprises whole-of-population initiatives that address the underlying causes and drivers of domestic, family and sexual violence (DFSV), including norms, attitudes and behaviours surrounding gender roles and relations. It targets structural inequalities and community-level factors. Early intervention (also referred to as secondary prevention), which identifies and aims to address the early signs of DFSV to stop it from escalating or prevent it from recurring. It includes prevention among high-risk groups and settings, changing the trajectory of violence and preventing the progression of violence. Grant funds cannot be used for DFSV primary prevention activities as indicated in the Grant Funds Exclusions section of the published Grant Program Guidelines (page 6). Grant funds may be used for early intervention.
