Information for applicants

- Please try to provide as much detail as you can to help us identify the documents you want.
- You will be contacted within 5 working days after the application is received to notify you of the agency's decision as to the validity of your application.
- Please note: An application is not a valid access application if it is an application for excluded information of the agency, or does not comply with the formal requirements for access applications as per section 41 for the GIPA Act.
- Identification is required for all requests for personal information.
- If you are requesting documents relating to the personal affairs of another person, on their behalf, they must give consent. An original signed authority by the applicant is required.
- Your request will be dealt with as soon as possible and in any case within twenty working days after it is registered. However, if an agency is obliged to conduct third party consultations, section 54 of the GIPA Act provides for an additional 10 working days (up to a maximum of 15 working days) in which to process the application.
- If the documents you seek are more likely to be held by another Agency, your request will be transferred and you will be notified.
- If you are granted access, the government information you are seeking may be of interest to other members of the public, details about your application may be recorded in the Western NSW Local Health District's disclosure log. This disclosure log is on our website.
- You have a right to object to these details being included in our disclosure log, in certain circumstances. For example, you might object if the government information you seek contains your own personal information or concerns your business, commercial, professional or financial interests. However, even if you do object, we may still decide to include details about your access application in our disclosure log.

Fees and Charges

Under the GIPA Act, the application fee of $30.00 covers the first hour of processing time, with subsequent processing time charged at a rate of $30.00 per hour.

Processing charges (not including the application fee) may be reduced by 50% if the applicant is the holder of a Pensioner Concession card issued by the Commonwealth that is in force, a full-time student, a non-profit organisation (including a person applying for or on behalf of a non-profit organisation), or where a public interest is sufficiently demonstrated.

You may also be required to pay processing charges for this request and a statement will be given of any such charge if appropriate.

General information about the GIPA Act is available by calling the Information and Privacy Commission NSW on freecall 1800 472 697 Email: ipcinfo@ipc.nsw.gov.au) website: www.ipc.nsw.gov.au
