Re-accreditation after Ceasing Application Form

Re-accreditation after ceasing is a structured pathway to support teachers to re-enter the teaching profession as outlined in Section 12 of the NSW Teacher Accreditation Manual (TA Manual).

Teachers can apply for re-accreditation after ceasing if their provisional or conditional accreditation was ceased for not achieving Proficient Teacher accreditation by the end of their timeframe. Teachers who are re-accredited after ceasing may be given a further two years to achieve Proficient Teacher accreditation.

Teachers who were conditionally accredited will need to have completed an approved initial teacher education program before they can apply.

Suitability to teach assessment

The personal information collected in this form may be used by NESA to conduct a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check as part of its suitability to teach assessment (outlined in Section 13 of the TA Manual).
