Teacher eligibility

Please select one of the following:

I voluntarily cancelled my accreditation at Proficient Teacher level or above before the end of my maintenance period and am returning to teaching after a break of more than five years

I taught in a NSW school before 1 October 2004 and have been away from teaching for more than five years

I taught in a NSW early childhood service before 18 July 2016 and have been away from teaching more than five years

I was re-accredited at Provisional after my accreditation was revoked for not meeting conditions of my accreditation (failure to provide a WWCC clearance or failure to pay fees) and have been away from teaching for more than five years

I was re-accredited at Provisional after revocation and NESA has determined that I am eligible to apply for immediate accreditation at Proficient Teacher.

Documentation checklist

I have attached the following documentation:

Evidence of current employment at the school/service which is making the recommendation

Employment history showing that you have had more than a five year break from teaching

Employment history showing the length of employment as a teacher before your break from teaching

If applicable, employment records showing that you taught in a NSW:

- school prior to 1 October 2004; or

Application for Immediate Accreditation at Proficient Teacher for returning teachers

- approved centre-based early childhood service prior to 18 July 2016

Evidence of any relevant employment undertaken during your break from teaching in NSW

Evidence of any relevant further tertiary study completed during your break from teaching

Evidence of any relevant professional learning completed during your break from teaching

I confirm that all the information provided in relation to my request for immediate accreditation at Proficient Teacher is true and accurate.

Principal/service director details

As the principal/service director you are making a recommendation to NESAs about the teacher's accreditation.

A 'service director' is a teacher accredited at Proficient Teacher or above who has seniority over the teachers whose practice they are making an accreditation recommendation for.

You must consider the following when making a recommendation about immediate accreditation at Proficient Teacher for a returning teacher:

- whether the teacher's current practice meets the Standards for Proficient Teacher as observed through a range of professional activities classroom practice
- the teacher's previous level of accreditation
- the length of time away from teaching
- the length of employment as a teacher before their absence
- the nature of any employment undertaken during their absence from teaching in NSW, including employment as a teacher
- any relevant further tertiary study completed during their absence
- other appropriate professional or personal circumstances.
