

Application to register a change of name for an adult

Births Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 (BDMR Act)

General information

Eligibility

To apply to change your name in NSW you must be:

- 18 years of age or older;
- born in NSW, or
- born overseas AND a resident in NSW for at least the last three consecutive years immediately before the date of your application.

You must be born in NSW or overseas

If you were born in Australia but not NSW, you must apply to the Registry in the State or Territory of your birth.

Multiple name changes

You may change your name once in a 12 month period and 3 times in your lifetime (exceptions may apply).

Change of name by marriage

A person, either male or female, that marries in Australia, can change to their spouses married family name by providing a birth certificate and marriage certificate issued by the Australian Registry.

If you are not Australian citizen, or if you were marriage overseas, you should check with the relevant agencies requesting proof of your identity for their requirements. (e.g. Passport office, Embassy, NSW Roads and Maritime Services).

Successful applications

To help us complete your application, you will need to:

- return all original birth certificates and/or change of name certificates issued by the NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages;
- be honest and accurate on your application;
- explain why you want to change your name;
- choose a name that is not prohibited i.e. not rude, too long, or includes numbers or symbols. The name should not be a statement or phrase, or resemble an official title or rank recognised in Australia;
- advise all your previous change of names and/or previous names that you have used.

Note: that once the change of name has been registered and a certificate issued:

- The change of name certificate cannot be used to amend any details of a registered life event that occurred before the registration date of the change of name.
- Some organisations may not accept certificates if they are laminated.

If you are a restricted person

If you are restricted person, you must contact your supervising authority to seek permission. It is an offence to apply to change your name without permission from your supervising authority.

See page 3

If you have a criminal record

If you have been convicted of any offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more, you must advise us.

Note: 'An offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more' does not mean that you have been sentenced to this period of time for the offence. It relates to the maximum penalty you could have received for that offence.

See page 10.

Permission for a police check

We request your permission to apply for a National Police Check with the NSW Police Force. There is no cost to this check. If you choose not to, we may ask you to provide a recent National Police Certificate. This will be at your own cost.

See page 10

Registry approved witnesses

When you apply by post, please provide certified copies of your identity documents.

A certified copy of an identity document is a photocopy of the identification that has an endorsement on it saying it is a true copy of an original document.

The following persons can certify your identity documents:

- Justice of the Peace (JP)
- Notary Public
- Practising Solicitor / Lawyer
- Service NSW Officer
- Full list of Registry approved witnesses.

See page 6.

Before lodging your application

Please read and complete all information on the application

Warning

It is an offence to make a false or misleading statement in any application or document under the BDMR Act. Penalties apply.

It is also an offence under Part 5A of the Crimes Act 1900 to provide false or misleading information or documents.

Can my application be refused?

Yes. The Registrar may refuse your application if:

- you are ineligible, or
- if you have changed your name 3 times or more in NSW or another State, or
- if you have changed your name within the last 12 months in NSW or another State, or
- your new name would be a prohibited name.

The Registrar may require you to provide more documentation until satisfied of your age and identity, and that your change of name is not made for a fraudulent or improper use.

Unsuccessful applications

The fee for registering a change of name includes processing your application and certificate. If your application is declined or cancelled, only the certificate fee is refunded. All change of name applications are recorded. You will be notified if your application is unsuccessful and a reason will be provided.

Attach required identification

You must establish proof of your current identity by:

- providing the required identity documents. If issued by overseas authorities they must be translated into English by an accredited translator, i.e. National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI).

See page 6.

- providing photo identification. If you are unable to provide official photo identification, you must attach a passport size photograph that has been witnessed and signed by a guarantor.

See page 11.

- providing evidence of any previous legal name change (e.g., marriage certificate, deed poll).

See page 8.

Use our Checklist

- Incomplete applications may cause delays. Before lodging your application, please make sure you have everything right.

See page 14.

- We request you return original NSW certificates. If you have lost your NSW birth certificate and/or NSW change of name certificate, you must complete the certificate return declaration on page 13.

Restricted persons

The BDMR Act restricts certain groups of persons from changing their name without the permission of a supervising authority. It also restricts people from making a change of name on behalf of a restricted person. Restricted persons in NSW are:

- an inmate of a correctional centre.
- a person on remand.
- a parolee.
- a periodic detainee.
- a person subject to a supervision order.
- a forensic patient.
- a correctional patient.

Are you required to get approval?

Persons under the supervision of the Commissioner of Corrective Services, the Mental Health Review Tribunal, or the NSW Police Commissioner, must obtain approval from that authority before making an application. Making an application without approval is an offence under the BDMR Act.

Exemptions to these restrictions

- Persons who have been convicted of an offence under a law of the Commonwealth.
- Persons who are the subject of a warrant under the Commonwealth Defence Force Discipline Act 1982 and are in a correctional centre pursuant to a punishment imposed under that Act.
- Persons who are detainees within the meaning of the Commonwealth Migration Act 1958 and who are held in a correctional centre.
- Persons who are in the keeping of a correctional officer under Section 250 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences Act) 1999.
- Persons who are a former serious offender because of the commission or alleged commission of an offence under a law of the Commonwealth.

Are you a registrable person?

- If you are a registrable person under the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000, you must contact the Child Protection and Sex Crimes Squad of the NSW Police, to seek permission to apply to change your name. Note: It is an offence to apply to change your name without permission of the Commissioner of the NSW Police.

If unsure of your status, contact:

- LawAccess NSW on 1300 888 529 (Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm excluding public holidays).
- Inmates can call Prisoners Legal Service or LawAccess NSW on the Common Auto Dial List (CADL) as a free call – just press 11# (Legal Aid) and 2# (LawAccess).

Privacy

The Registry is responsible for the administration of legislation including the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 and the Relationship Register Act 2010 and the regulations made under those Acts. We collect information under those Acts in order to register NSW life events accurately and securely in perpetuity, ensuring their integrity and confidentiality.

The Register is a permanent historical record and part of the civil records of NSW. It is not available for public scrutiny. Information held in the Register is used to issue certificates in accordance with our Access Policy and can be used for a range of other purposes including statistical analysis, medical research, community planning and law enforcement.

When you complete this form, we use the information that you provide to us to respond to your request (which may include determining your eligibility and making a decision on your application) and to prevent fraud. We may disclose your personal information to a third party to verify that the information that you have provided to us is correct.

For more information about how we handle personal information, including who we may disclose it to, please read our Privacy Collection Notice, available at <https://www.nsw.gov.au/births-deaths-marriages/about-us/privacy-collection-notice>.

Reasons for change of name

Part 6: Why are you changing your name?

You need to provide a reason for your change of name application to be considered. If you are married in Australia, please check with the relevant organisations if you need to register a change of name.

Write a brief statement explaining the reason for changing your name. One or two word explanations such as 'personal', 'professional', 'passport' or 'driver licence' are not sufficient and may result in your application being unsuccessful.

Please supply any relevant documents to support your application (e.g. your marriage certificate if you were married overseas).

Part 7: NSW Born ONLY

Do you want your new name recorded on your birth certificate?

- Yes You will receive a birth certificate in your new name with a notation listing all your former name(s).
- No You will receive a change of name certificate only. You need to purchase a birth certificate to link your names. Your birth certificate will have an endorsement that a name change has been completed. Your new name is not shown on your NSW birth certificate. An additional certificate fee is required. See Fees Schedule.

- ⚠ You must return ALL your birth and/or change of name certificate(s) as they will no longer be valid after your change of name is complete.
- ⚠ Some organisations may require both birth AND change of name certificates to prove your identity. Please check with the organisation requesting your identity documents for their requirements (e.g. Australian Passports Office, driver licencing authorities).

Criminal records check

Part 8: Can we apply for a National Police check for you with NSW Police?

You are not required by law to consent, however if you answer NO it may delay your application.

- Yes      There is no cost involved.
- No        We may ask you to purchase a National Police Certificate from the NSW Police. The Registry will contact you. Any certificate issued before the lodgement date of this application will NOT be accepted.

Part 9: Have you been convicted of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more?

‘An offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more’ does not mean that you were sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 12 months or more. It relates to the maximum penalty you could have received for that offence.

A conviction includes the making of an order under Section 10 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999. A conviction does not include a spent conviction.

If you are unsure please contact LawAccess NSW on 1300 888 529.

Please choose from one of the two following statements:

- No        I have not been convicted of any offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more,
OR
