Privacy

The Registry is responsible for the administration of legislation including the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 and the Relationship Register Act 2010 and the regulations made under those Acts. We collect information under those Acts in order to register NSW life events accurately and securely in perpetuity, ensuring their integrity and confidentiality.

The Register is a permanent historical record and part of the civil records of NSW. It is not available for public scrutiny. Information held in the Register is used to issue certificates in accordance with our Access Policy and can be used for a range of other purposes including statistical analysis, medical research, community planning and law enforcement.

When you complete this form, we use the information that you provide to us to respond to your request (which may include determining your eligibility and making a decision on your application) and to prevent fraud. We may disclose your personal information to a third party to verify that the information that you have provided to us is correct.

For more information about how we handle personal information, including who we may disclose it to, please read our Privacy Collection Notice, available at <https://www.nsw.gov.au/births-deaths-marriages/about-us/privacy-collection-notice>.

Warning

Please be aware that it is an offence under Part 5A of the Crimes Act 1900 to provide false or misleading information or documents and it is an offence under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 to make a false or misleading representation in an application, notice or document.
