Access and cost

Under the privacy legislation you have a right to access personal or health information concerning you that is held by the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA).

With the exception of information which is provided on a fee for service basis¹ you are entitled to access your personal or health information without excessive cost or delay.

NESA may refuse to process your application in part, or in whole, if there is an exemption under the legislation that restricts disclosure of the information sought.

You have the right to request an internal review by NESA of a decision in relation to your application for access. A request for internal review can be sent to the address below.

Proof of identity

When seeking access to your, your child's or another person's personal or health information on their behalf, you will be required to provide proof of identity. This requirement will be met by providing a copy of one of the following documents:

- Australian driver photo licence showing current address, or
- Current Australian passport, and current address details, or
- Other proof of name, signature, relationship to the person on whose behalf you are acting (such as Medicare card or birth certificate) and current address details.

¹ Replacement Certificates and HSC results services are available on a fee for service basis. See NESA's Agency Information Guide for details.
