

Government Information (Public Access) Act Annual Report 1 July 2019 – 30 June 2020

Agency Name	Nepean Blue Mountains Local Health District
Principal Department	NSW Ministry of Health
Reporting Period	1 July 2019– 30 June 2020

Under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA Act), there is a presumption in favour of the disclosure of Government information unless there is an overriding public interest against disclosure.

1. Review of proactive release program - Clause 7(a)

Nepean Blue Mountains Local Health District undertakes reviews of its information on a regular basis, including information requested via informal access and formal access channels. Liaison also occurs with Executive Directorates and their respective portfolios regarding identification of information that can be released proactively. Review of the Nepean Blue Mountains Local Health District disclosure log and websites of other agencies to see the type of information they release proactively, is also undertaken.

The most accessible way for the public to access such information is via the Nepean Blue Mountains Local Health District internet website, as it is continually developed to make information readily available to the public. During 2019/20 the following information has been released proactively on the website:

- NBMLHD Board information including board member details, Board sub-committees and Board minutes
- Strategic plans, business plans, reports, action plans, audited financial statements and annual reports, including Year in Review) NBMLHD Vision, Values and Goals, Executive Team information and organisational chart
- NBMLHD Service Agreement and budget allocations for facilities and services
- Hospital and Community Health Centre contact information, maps, parking and transport information, disability and access information, services provided, visitor information, key news items and information for GPs
- NBMLHD Outpatient Clinic Service Directory
- Health consumer information, including patient information , consumer representative and engagement information, and transport services
- Public health information including immunisation, infectious disease management, environmental health, and current public health alerts
- Employment and career information, positions being recruited to, workforce diversity, careers information, work experience and volunteer opportunities, and the NBMLHD Reward and Recognition Program
- Media information, including news stories, videos, NBM News and topical news items for the public

In addition to the website, NBMLHD actively uses social media such as Facebook, Twitter and YouTube to immediately share topical information.

2. Number of access applications received - Clause 7(b)

During 2019-20, Nepean Blue Mountains Local Health District received six valid formal access applications under the GIPA Act. One access application received in 2018-19, was in progress as at 30 June 2019 and carried forward into the current reporting period. 7 applications were decided as at 30 June 2020.

3. Number of refused applications for Schedule 1 information - Clause 7(c)

During the reporting period, there were no applications for information subject to Schedule 1 of the Act.

4. Application for Internal Review

One access application received in 2018-19 and decided in May 2019, was subject to a request for internal review with that review in progress as at 30 June 2019 and carried forward into the current reporting period. The outcome of that internal review is accounted for in Table G, below.

As at 30 June 2020, no applications decided in 2019-20 have been the subject of an internal review, therefore Table H reports no applications for review.

Statistical information about access applications - Clause 7(d) and Schedule 2

The following tables (A-I) outline statistical information about access applications – Clause 7(d) and Schedule 2.

In summary, of the 7 access applications decided in 2019-20, 9 decisions were made regarding access. Six decisions were made to grant access to the information in full. Access was refused in full in one decision. Two decisions were made that information was not held, while no decisions were made that information was already available. No decisions were made to refuse to deal with all or part of an application under sections 60(1b) and 60(1c) of the GIPA Act.

	Access granted in full	Access granted in part	Access refused in full	Information not held	Information already available	Refuse to deal with application	Refuse to confirm/deny whether information is held	Application withdrawn
